

Ministering to Women – MT 310

Have you ever wished you could make an impact for Christ in your relationships with the women in your life? In this class we will learn and discuss tools to help us minister with grace and confidence to women facing life's difficulties and those wishing to grow deeper in their faith. This is a great opportunity for you to develop your ability to serve women in one-on-one discipleship, personal relationships, and leading small groups and studies.

TOPICS COVERED:

- The Gracious Gift of God's Word: Our Foundation
- Answering the Call to Reflect God's Character
- Living as Titus 2 Women in a Romans 1 World
- God's Grace for Nurturing Others
- Walking with Others in Prayer
- Walking with Others in Suffering
- Walking with Women in Seasons of Waiting and Disappointment
- God's Grace for Listening
- Challenges of Teaching the Bible to Other Women

We will be listening to some great resources in this class by Jen Wilkin, Gloria Furman, Nancy Guthrie, Megan Hill, Kristie Anyabwile and others, along with times of discussion and personal testimonies. There will be no written homework assignments, but we will encourage you to put into practice what we discuss in your everyday relationships.
