

Two Ways to Live – MT 101

Are you scared to have gospel conversations with friends and family? You don't know what to say? You are worried about where to take the conversation? Do you understand the gospel and how to clearly communicate it in order for someone to see their need to trust Christ alone?

In this course, we will discuss the core truths of the gospel, train you in the “Two Ways to Live” gospel illustration so that you're ready to share it, learn how to initiate spiritual conversations with others and deepen in friendships with others in the course who desire to take new steps in sharing the gospel with others.

“Two Ways to Live” is one of my favorite gospel illustrations to share because it highlights God as the creator, the brokenness of the world, how Christ is the Savior who takes away our sin and therefore we are called to trust him with our lives. I believe that more and more people don't have any Bible knowledge and this illustration presents essential truths needed to understand to come to faith in Christ. You'll come away more confident in the gospel and prepared to share it with others. Come join us!
